Hebrews 6:4-12

⁴ It is impossible for those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, who have shared in the Holy Spirit, ⁵ who have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the coming age ⁶ and who have fallen away, to be brought back to repentance. To their loss they are crucifying the Son of God all over again and subjecting him to public disgrace. ⁷ Land that drinks in the rain often falling on it and that produces a crop useful to those for whom it is farmed receives the blessing of God. ⁸ But land that produces thorns and thistles is worthless and is in danger of being cursed. In the end it will be burned. ⁹ Even though we speak like this, dear friends, we are convinced of better things in your case—the things that have to do with salvation. ¹⁰ God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them. ¹¹ We want each of you to show this same diligence to the very end, so that what you hope for may be fully realized. ¹² We do not want you to become lazy, but to imitate those who through faith and patience inherit what has been promised.

Questions-

1. Verses 4-6 are difficult to digest yet provide a deliberate and strong warning to never turn your back on Christ because it would cost you dearly. How do these verses find you?
2. Verses 7-8 provide a metaphor for two different conditions of the heart. What can you do daily to make sure your heart is like a “land that drinks in the rain” (vs. 7) rather than a “land that produces thorns and thistles?” (vs. 8)
3. Many times, in Scripture, we’re told to remember God, but here we’re told He remembers us. How is that encouraging to you today? (vs. 10)
4. How can you be more “diligent” in regards to your walk with Christ? Consider it, then share your answer with those you’re with.
5. We’re called to follow the example (imitate) of those who have modeled faith & patience in their Christian faith. Who is someone that comes to mind?
 - a. How can you specifically imitate them?
 - b. Would you consider letting that person know as a way of encouraging them?
