Questions:

1. What are the four things the early church devoted themselves to? Can you list them and explain them to each other?
2. Which one of the four has spoken to you the most and why?
3. As we looked at “the breaking of bread” this Sunday why do you think this was so important to the early church?
4. Can you think of instances in Jesus’ life and ministry where food and or a meal was involved? Where exactly and why do you think that was a common pattern (or practice)?
 1. Why do you think Jesus chose Communion to be a way for us to remember is incredible (even crazy) love for us?
 2. Can you think of a meaningful or even life-changing conversation you’ve had with another believer (or believers) during a meal? If so, what was it?
5. How might this (breaking bread often with believers) become a more common occurrence in you life?
